DEDICATION

Miss Jane E. Heaphy

Wisdom and friendliness are nought but words

Unless a certain special person makes them live,

As you, Miss Heaphy, have for us, the class of 1964.

Two years now you have guided our path

By your guidance and your interest in our problems.

All last year as Class Adviser, you,

Ever willing, ever ready, gladly gave your time,

Your effort, to remedy all our mistakes,

To give aid in all our crises, to insure

A fair election, to see we had a beautiful prom.

Patiently you unraveled the various troubles

Encountered by our band in Washington.

Loyally you escorted festive cheerleaders

To and from each successive game.

This year you again have given to us

Long, exhausting hours of effort, for still another

Election, another prom, more games, and much,

Much more that we shall never know.

And somewhere in this hectic schedule,

You find time to be the wise and kindly person

That a teacher should be.

And so, to you we dedicate this yearbook—

May you find it worthy.

Always helpful

Our Miss Heaphy

In Memoriam

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

35th President of the United States

Born May 29, 1917

Inaugurated January 20, 1961

Died November 22, 1963

The nation has lost its President, tolerance has lost its chief advocate, freedom has lost its dearest friend, and American youth has lost its mentor. John Fitzgerald Kennedy was a hero of the colossal mold of the ancient Greeks—cultured, wise, vigorous, brave in war, brave in conference, brave and friendly while traveling. In remembering him, let us remember these words spoken by him on his Inauguration Day:

"In the long history of the world, only a few generations have been granted the role of defending freedom in its hour of maximum danger. I do not believe that any of us would exchange places with any other people or any other generation. The energy, the faith, the devotion which we bring to this endeavor will light our country and all who serve it—and the glow from that fire can truly light the world."

FOREWORD

These are the crowds of Pittsfield High:
crowds of students pushing their way into school
early each morning,
crowds of fans rushing onto the bleachers brisk
autumn afternoons,
crowds of dancers swaying to the soft music on
a spring evening,
crowds of friends boisterously gathering at the Friendly every afternoon.

Soon these crowds will disperse; each individual will go his separate way. Yet, these crowds of Pittsfield High School will always exist, if not in actuality, at least in memory.

ALMA MATER

Words by Esther Kierstead '38 and Friend Kierstead '39
Tune: "All Through the Night"

Guardian elm trees cast their shadows
 O'er thy ivied walls;
Sons and daughters ever loyal
 Throng thy honored halls.
Pittsfield High School, Pittsfield High School,
 Alma Mater dear,
Help us to preserve thy honor
 Through each coming year.

Great has been thy former record,
 Greater will it be
As the future generations
 Sing their praise to thee.
Proud are we who through thy portals
 Into life do pass;
Help us ever to be worthy,
 Each and every class.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Shirley Russo goes over advertising copy with Mr. Laramy of the Western Massachusetts Electric Company.

A TELEPHONE JOB

OFFERS BOTH CAREER

AND SOCIAL SATISFACTION

WITHOUT BREAKING STRIDE,

why not graduate from high school to the Telephone Company? You'll love the friendly young people who'll work with you, and the many social activities that make your work so pleasant and rewarding.

OPPORTUNITY IS EXCELLENT

and your ability will be recognized. Your starting salary should climb with regular increases. And, of course, Company benefits, security, and regular advancement are well-known reasons why working for the Telephone Company is so attractive to graduates.

TELEPHONE JOBS ARE IMPORTANT,

vital to the effective communications of the community, the nation, and the world. When you take your place as a respected member of the telephone community, we'll train you, on full salary, even without previous job experience.

Why not come and see our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.

A black and white photograph of a woman with dark hair styled in a bun, sitting at a desk and writing a letter. She is looking down at her pen with a focused expression. On the desk in front of her is a large, open book or a stack of papers, and a pen lies nearby. The lighting is soft, highlighting her face and the desk.

LETTERS MAKE YOUR WORLD GO ROUND

You like to get letters. Everyone does. And familiar handwriting on the envelope makes you eager to open it. You want to know how Jane is enjoying her trip to the Coast, that was her graduation present. Or how George is doing in his new job.

Letters make your world go round and round. The more letters you write, the more you will get. So it is good to keep your hand in practice.

Good paper makes this practice a pleasure. Its fine texture invites pen or typewriter. Words flow with the ease of conversation. And its handsome appearance reflects your good taste.

In Crane's Fine Papers this pleasure and good taste are happily combined.

In Appreciation

The staff of the 1964 Dome would like to express our sincere appreciation to all those who have helped us in the publication of this yearbook. In particular we would like to thank the following people:

Our advisors for their many hours of working, worrying, and helping us so patiently —

Mr. Eugene Mitchell for his advice and assistance in the photography and especially for his contribution of the excellent photograph of President Kennedy —

The Berkshire Eagle for the many photographs they contributed for our use —

Mr. Arthur Flynn of the O'Toole Publishing Company for his helpful advice —

Our advertisers for their financial assistance without which publication would be impossible.
